TALAMONTI

IT'S IN OUR NATURE

Founded in 2001, Tenuta Talamonti is one of Italy's most dynamic boutique wine producers. Renowned for their sustainably produced estate wines from Abruzzo's Loreto Aprutino commune in the Tavo Valley Region.

Distinguished by the greatest biodiversity in all of Europe, bordered by mountain ranges and the Adriatic Sea, Talamonti is on a mission to share Abruzzo's unique terroir and extraordinary microclimate with the world.

Motivated by a tremendous passion for their local roots, Talamonti places special emphasis on promoting Abruzzo's unique indigenous varieties including Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Trebbiano d'Abruzzo and Pecorino.

VOLA VOLA

Written in 1922 by Dommarco, it is considered the Abruzzi emblem song. It was immensely popular after being awarded the first prize in Paris in 1953 at the Festival of the Italian Song. It is a melancholy song, based on the nostalgic memory of a youth game among boys and girls, based on the ransom of token objects.

COSTA DEI TRABOCCHI

This breathtaking stretch of coast of the Abruzzi region is named after the area's characteristic fishing platforms which can be seen creeping, crab-like, into the waters. Since the 15th century, they have provided fishermen with a safe way of fishing, even in the most adverse of sea conditions.

COPPA ACERBO

An automobile race held in the Abruzzi during 1926-1957 and named after the brother of a fascist politician of Loreto Aprutino. The race was later renamed the Pescara Grand Prix and in 1957 formed a round of the FIA Formula One World Championship. Still today it retains the record as the longest circuit length ever in Formula One history.

CASCELLA

Born in Pescara in 1921, Pietro Cascella was a timeless Italian painter and sculptor. He is noted for his monumental Carrara marble sculptures and his paintings, which often hark back to impressionism and post-impressionism. His distinctive, archaic style recalled the art and architecture of the ancient Mediterranean.
